

Daniel J. Geltrude, CPA

Education & Licenses:

- Rider University, Bachelors in Accounting
- Fairleigh Dickinson University, Masters in Taxation
- Penn State University, Masters in Human Resources and Employment Relations

- Certified Public Accountant in NJ since 1991
- Licensed Agent for life, health and disability insurance
- Licensed broker – Series 7 (INACTIVE)

Professional:

Over 30 years of public accounting experience (including “Big 8” audit experience)

Geltrude & Company, LLC (Nutley, NJ) since 1995

- Managing partner
- Founded firm as sole practitioner
- Over 25 accountants on staff currently

Lakeland Bank, 2016- Present

- Corporate Advisory Council

Pascack Community Bank, 2007-2016

- Chairman of audit committee
- Member of ALCO committee
- Member of Compliance committee
- Chair of Compensation and HR committee

Interchange Bank, 2006

- Advisory board member

Franklin Bank, 1999-2005

- One of three original founders and board member since inception
- Member of executive committee
- Chairman of audit committee

NJ State Board of Accountancy since 2010

- Served as President, VP, Secretary, Treasurer

Member of the New Jersey Society of CPA's (current)

- Board of Trustees 1997-1999

Member of the American Institute of CPA's (current)

Charity & Civic:

Co-founder of the Mike Geltrude Foundation for Melanoma Education and Research

Clara Maas Hospital Foundation board member

Penn State Hershey Melanoma Center (current chairman)

Penn State Hershey Cancer Institute (chairman, 2007-2014)

Rider University – Accounting Advisory Board

Other:

Accounting Professor – Montclair State University (current)

Accounting Professor (Graduate Program) – Bloomfield College

Professor (Graduate Program) – Penn State University